ANIMAL OF THE YEAR

THE LOVEBIRD

THREATENED SYMBOL OF LUCK AND LOVE

The lovebird stands for happiness, love and peace. However, their living conditions are less romantic: since 1980, almost 90 percent of their holdings in Germany have been lost. What the small pigeon lacks are suitable habitats such as structurally rich forest and field edges. The conditions for the lovebirds have deteriorated, particularly as a result of industrial agriculture.

But a second point also threatens the lovebird. As the only long-distance driver among our pigeons, she spends her winter in Africa. However, illegal and legal hunting means that she is at great risk on her migration route. In the EU alone, around two million lovebirds are killed each year. With a petition, we want to ask Federal Environment Minister Svenja Schulze to support the EU to stop hunting.

HAIR WASHING IN INDUSTRIAL STYLE

WE LET THE STEEL RUST INDIVIDUALLY FOR YOU!

Would you like to completely cover your wash station with rust? Or would you prefer a partial rust look? No problem. We design the wash station according to your individual wishes.

After the rust pattern has been created, your wash station is painted with either matt or glossy clear lacquer so that the rust does not rub off. This creates a durable patina that looks natural.

with a light rust structure, unpainted with strong rust structure, glossy lacquered

5.1 PURE Welcome to the continuation of our #PROJEKTPURE!

In this step we changed the material mix and now use Corten steel instead of blue steel (see Promo Q4 2019). This results in countless and absolutely individual design options - regardless of whether they are fully rusted or partially rusted.

After individual consultation, you also have the opportunity to get involved in the design process yourself!

Since the surface rust would lead to discolouration of clothing without further treatment, this condition is preserved by applying a layer of clear lacquer - either matt or glossy.

You are already familiar with the other components: The old wood panel from Kolibri experiences its second life with us. Mixer tap, tilting mechanism and ceramic basin all come from the HNC range

We look forward to your further inspirations, suggestions, ideas and wishes. Our update for the Promo Q2 2020 is already being implemented - let us surprise you !!

CORTEN STEEL

Corten steel is a special type of steel that is particularly insensitive and weatherproof. The rust layer seals the material. For this reason, Corten steel is particularly popular with art objects and design elements for outdoors.
